The Duke of Marlborough will arrive

city, now a resident of Buffalo, N. Y., is stopping at the Epolit for a few days, ac-companied by his wife and mother. nome. Mrs. Smith is looking well after ber ong absence in the South, and is most en-thusiastic in her praises of the exposition Mr. and Mrs. Gunten Chapin will be at home to triends Fridays during November at No. 2140 G street northwest.

A tea and reception at the Californ's Hospital will be held on Saturday afterneon, and that deserving charity will doubtless be accorded liberal patronage. The reception committee is composed of the officers of the board, Mrs. Acontely, Mine, de Sibour, St. Mary's Guild, faney work, Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Kaufmann, St. Mary's Guild; flowers, Mrs. Ransey, Miss Eitot, Miss Todal; candy, Virginia Dodson, Memorial Chapter; tes take, Mrs. Mediane, Mrs. Glover, Miss Schenck, Mrs. Mediane, Mrs. Glover, Mrs. Schenck, Mrs. McCanley, Mrs. Addenred, Mrs. Shendao, Mrs. Johnstone; ice cream, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Moore; home made cake, Mrs. Gale. Duke of Marborough Comes To-day

The Blue Bell Social Club was organized Monday evening at the home of the Misses Adams. No. 905 Ninth street northeast. The officers elected were: Mr. George Ardell, president; Mr. Edward Crampton, vice president; Mr. J. C. Edson, secretary and treasurer. Music was enjoyed until quite late by those present. Misses Adams, Brown Spencer. Schwartz, King. Colins; Messrs. Ardell, Crampton, Schwartz, Miller and Frazee made up the party.

The Duke of Mariborough will arrive in this city this afternoon, accommanied by his cousin, Hon. Ivor Guest, and will remain several days. He will be emertained at the British embassy, as he, with his cousin, comes as a visitor to Sir Julian Pauncefote, British ambassador. The Puke was evidently well pleased with the and Frazee made up the party.

Miss Annie Estelle Cock, daughter of Mr. Altred Cock, and Mr. William Spencer Amssirong, son of Dr. W. J. Armstrong, of this city, were married last evening at 8 o'clock at the Western Presbyterian Charch by Rev. Howard Wilbur Emis, its pastor.

At the entrance of the church the bridal party separated, the bride, preceded by her six bridesmands, Miss Kathryn Jaquette, Miss Possie Ellis, Miss Bertie Reichenbach, Miss Nellie Friebus, Miss Mamie Arth and Miss Mannie Cock, and her maft of bonor, Miss Mannie Cock, and her maft of bonor, Miss Mannie Cock, and her maft of bonor, Miss Mattle Cock, and her maft of bonor, attended by his best man, Mr. John Arnstrong, and his ushers, Mr. Paris Brenzie, Mr. Will Frentiss, Mr. Vernon Hodges, Mr. Peyton Gordon, Mr. Francis Stephens and Mr. Will Starnell, passed up the right asist to the chancel where the procession met. The church was prettily decorated with potted palms, and the naptial marches were played by Mr. Harry J. Kumball. Duke was evalently well pleased with the Capital, and its beauties, and not satisfied with the glympse he had of it on his flying trip to Kentucky. Washington is never more attractive than in the fall, the driving, riding, walking, being perfect, and appealing to the English love for fresh air and exercise more than at any other season of the year. Society, too, is in excellent trim for his inspection, the wheeling girls, with rosychecks and bright eves, all in the attire, being a sight that will fairly make him opline he may have been hasty. ciris, with rosy cheeks and bright eves, an inchie attire, being a sight that will fairly masterpiece. If you are not familiar with great painters, ask your artist friends about Bodenhausen. They will tell you how celebrated he is. The subject of the engraving is "LISTENING TO THE FAIRIES." It depicts a beautiful girl seated near a tree at the edge of a woodland. She is listening intently for fairy sounds. Her eyes show the intentness of her purpose, and one hand is raised to her ear to stop any noises that might float by from Fairyland. An owl near her conveys the idea of the approach of night. The engraving is 22 by 28 inches-larger than this page. It will grace the finest frame.

We are going to give these engravings away primarily as a matter of gratitude to the public. That is the first object we have in view. We do not intend that our birthday armiversary shall be a money-making day. The truth is that we expect to lose something.

Last year we gave away 3.800 butter knives on our fourth birthday. That one only a business showed a loss—but what of it? The public has appreciated our efforts to please them, and the extent of their patronage has been so gratifying that we can well afford to make Saturday, November 2, a day of celebration and no profit. can well affect to make saturday, November 2, a day of celebration and no profit.

We have just issued a 16-page booklet that tests all about our pure, sweet functionine. We want everybody who comes to our birthday ecceleration to get one of these booklets. If you can't come to the excelenation you ought to have a Lutterian best, anyhow. We will send a copy by new 11 10 180 request.
